CAN YOU DANCE?

The candidates have gone to the dances.

At the dance, Tuesday night, you could see both Mr. Perl and Mr. Maht. They were light fantastic with an easy elegance and grace that won the applause of all. Supporters of the men stood about and cheered each other. It seems that Mr. Perl is an old attendant on the dances, and so he has acquired the performance with a greater degree of composure and confidence than his sweet looking rival, who is comparatively new to the work.

And to learn that great diplomacy is possible at a dance, you have only to watch the movements of these two men. Of course they are supposed to know all the "doubtful" men in the house. The boys talk that a candidate makes a bee line for a doubtful voter's best girl and engages her for "the next waltz." You all know the opportunity a girl gives for making an impression; if you don't, you had better find out. The candidate walks slowly enough to allow a constant flow of conversation.

He talks a love that is full of politics, and by the time the number is ended he is prepared to lead his partner back, a proselyter

in his cause, to her escort, the man on whose account all this has been done.

The ladies don't vote, but our candidates for sheriff know that they have a great influence over those who do, and they know how to go after that influence. It is said that our candidates, now in the city, have tried to work this string by buying three tickets and then remaining away from the ball. Of course this is possible only to a very rich candidate. But those who are export in the matter say that the three ticket scheme is no good. It is a declaration of intention, but it does not get to the ears of those whom it is intended to impress.

Those who buy one ticket and dance assure us that buying three tickets and remaining away is a mistake in the art of vote getting.

You had just as well write your laudable intention on a piece of paper, paste it on a rock and cast the whole thing into the San-gum. You can get print big enough for those who run to read; but those who dance will only listen.

And so dear candidates, you will please come out to the dances. The work may be

Committee to withdraw J. G. Cannon. Al-

Joe is a tolerably wealthy man, but evidences are gathering every day that it will take the bottom dollar of his pile to send him back to Congress.

THE McKinley bill provides that eggs or birds shall be admitted free, while the eggs of Mr. Hayes' distinguished hens are prohibited by a duty of five cents a dozen. According to a line of reasoning with which republican papers have made us familiar,

this is stimulating the American hen and discriminating against the American eagle. Now will Mr. Hayes save the good name of the country by starting an eagle

roost, thereby putting that bird in the line of protection? And suppose Mills had protested the hen and left the eagle American bird to compete with the pauper eagles of Europe? Why, they would have the man hauled up for treason. Strike, patrons strike, for Hayes and the Hen.

Down with the eagle.

Hammond.

Uncle Charley Dick attended the fair at St. Louis last week.

E. Groer has a contract to dig an open ditch near Arthur.

George Wacaser had business at Monticello last Thursday.

Mrs. Howard Williams is quite sick. Dr.

Smith, of Lovington, is attending her.

John Bell and wife, of Lovington, visited the family of Jerome Taylor last week.

Joseph Pander is having a new barn built at his home in the south part of town.

David Withers and family, from Texas,

are here to spend a short time with relatives.

A. H. Williams and wife and James Law visited relatives at Elwin a few days last week.

Mrs. L. D. Young and children were visiting at her parents near Atwood, last week.

John and Lou Barger, from Galesville,

Ill., spending a few days here with relatives.

John W. Dawson, from Lovington, was here Thursday buying cattle, paying from 2 to 2 1/2 cents.

We learn that H. W. Leavitt, V. S., of this place, has rented the house vacated by Rev. Chapman.

John Todd and family, of Monticello, visited with the family of Thomas Hell-frich last week.

thought to be better a short time ago, is now worse again. Dr. Knott, of Monticello, has her case in charge.

T. J. and William Kizer with their families, attended the fair at St. Louis last week. L. M. Temple has charge of the Kizer Bros. office in their absence.

Little Cora Davis, the child wonder of Bethany, Ill., gave an entertainment at the M. E. church here last Saturday night. The exercises consisted of recitations, character impersonations, etc. Her selections were from the best authors and was well received for one so young. About 315 were taken in, one-half of which was for the benefit of the Sunday school of this place.

THE Use of Water and Salt.

Salt is an absolute essential to the diet of man. It promotes health in various ways.

Many of the functions of the body go on better under its influence, and without it the blood becomes impoverished. While a complete deprivation of salt would produce disastrous results, an excessive use of it would scarcely be less harmful. In large doses it acts as an emetic, in quantities beyond the requirements of health it irritates the stomach and intestines and sometimes purges. Those who use salt unusually freely almost always suffer

more or less from constipation.

To drink large quantities of water daily

should be the rule with those who suffer from constipation. Each day the system needs at least two quarts of water, as about that quantity is used up or thrown out of every twenty-four hours. Fruits and vegetable foods contain much water, and in tea, coffee, soups, etc., considerable

is taken habitually.

In all ways, as stated, about two quarts of water should enter the stomach daily.

It is a good plan to drink one or two glasses of water from half an hour to an hour before eating breakfast. And it may be either hot or cold as preferred. Whichever is used, the water should be slowly swallowed. To deluge the stomach with cold water would be to invite dyspeptic troubles.—Boston Herald.

Confirmed.
The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers of the California Fig Syrup company.

Opera Friday Night.
The Abbis Carrington Grand Opera company will give an entertainment at the opera house to-morrow night. Their program will consist of three fine concert programs, concluding with the third act of the opera "Faust," with full costumes and scenery. The company is highly spoken of by the press, and will give a first-class operatic entertainment. So far it is the only opera company announced for a performance here this season. The advance sale of seats has already begun. It should be large.

To-Night.
An exchange says of the minstrels here to-night.

The appearance for the first time in Columbia, Tenn., of McCabe & Young's minstrels was greeted by a big house, both upstairs and below, and the manner in which the people turned out is certainly encouraging to the management.

The performance was an exceptionally good one, consisting of many new features of minstrelsy and specialties of high merit. Only one or two objections were heard, the glittering array of good jokes. The company will probably play a return engagement.

Real Estate Transfers.
Louisa B. Miller to Morton Grant, one and four eighths in section 16, Decatur township; $500.

A party of citizens from Shelbyville and this city started northeast yesterday on the line of the new railroad to finish securing the right of way.

AT AUCTION.
An F. M. B. A. lodge in this vicinity attempted to levy on each member in the order to raise a campaign fund in favor of the F. M. B. A. candidate. It met opposition from a majority of the members, that came near ending in a slugging affair. A member finally suggested that they put up the charter at auction, which was quickly done and bid off at 85c. The lodge then adjourned sine die.

THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN.
was opened at Arthur Friday night by Hon. S. M. Wright, Jr., R. Huff and Silas D. Stocks, candidate for county clerk, addressed the meeting also.

COUNTY F. M. B. A.
The Moutrie county assembly of the F. M. B. A. met in secret session at the court house yesterday.

MINOR MENTION.
Mr. Williams of Carrollton, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Alex. Rose.

Mrs. Fred Baugher and Mrs. John Reese are in Chicago, this week, visiting relatives and friends.

The old buildings have been removed from the ground where M. McDonald will erect his new brick.

Hon. Thomas M. Thornton of Shelbyville was in the city Monday in the interest of the new railroad.

E. D. Hutchinson, a lawyer of Olney, was in the city Monday en route to Arcola, where he thinks of locating.

Harry Gardner, of the firm of Booz & Gardner, returned from Chicago Monday, where he had been attending the grand lodge of Masons.

Democratic Meetings.
Owen Scott, democratic candidate for congress, has made the following appointments in Macon county:

Macon—Monday, Oct. 20.
Marion—Tuesday, Oct. 21.

Mr. Scott is an able and logical speaker and those who are interested in having the 14th district represented in congress by a man who will remember what part of the United States he comes from, are earnestly invited to come out and hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

Blue Mound Offenders.
I. A. Buckingham was at Blue Mound yesterday to represent the city of Blue Mound in a suit against two violators of the village ordinances. Both pleaded guilty. One was named Crews. There were three cases against him. One under the city ordinance for assault and battery, one under the state law for the same offense, and one for gaming. The fines in each case, in the order given, were $5, $15, and $50, with costs. The other man was fined $10 and costs for gaming.

Coming Next Week.
Two attractions are billed for the Grand Opera House next week.

Wednesday evening, Oct. 22, Dan McCarthy and Gus Reynolds' company in the picturesque Irish comedy drama, "The Dear Irish Boy."

For Thursday evening, Oct. 23, we take pleasure in announcing Denman Thompson's delightful New England play, "The Old Homestead."

Public Reception.
The First M. E. church will give a public reception in honor of Rev. and Mrs. James Miller, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Packard, on College Hill, this evening, Oct. 16, from 7 to 10 o'clock. All members of the church and congregation and friends of Rev. Miller are invited to attend.

Delegates.
The Baptist prayer meeting last night was unusually well attended. At the close delegates were chosen to the meeting of the State Baptist association at Elgin on Oct. 20. Those elected to represent the Decatur church were Rev. Charles E. Torrey and wife, Miss Neta Clark and Ed Dawson.

Diphtheria.
The druggists say they are putting up a great many prescriptions for diphtheria. The doctors, however, say there is but little of the disease, and the undertakers say there are no fatalities. It appears that there is not diphtheria enough to cause any alarm.

Rowell.
J. H. Rowell and son Chester took dinner again yesterday at the Deming. In the afternoon they went to Blue Mound to address a republican meeting. A number of Decatur candidates and republican leaders accompanied them.

Closed.
J. W. Boone, the livery man at the corner of Cerrito Grande and Water streets, went out of business yesterday. Al Summers took his horses, some one else took the carriages, and Ed Dimock will take the stand.

Unusual.
The ladies of the Charity Union say they will have something unusual in their old fashioned supper on Friday night, Oct. 24. Instead of ice cream and cake they will serve fannet cakes and sorghum molasses.

New Houses.
The foundation for Eli Dawson's new house on North Church street is being laid. Work has begun on a handsome new house for Dr. O. R. Allen, on East William street.

The "Y's."
The Y. W. C. T. U. will have their meeting Thursday night. The delegates from the district and state conventions will read their reports. A literary and musical program will be rendered.

Party.
A number of young folks had a pleasant evening Tuesday night at the Haynes place, near Forsyth.

VETS OF THE EIGHTH.
THEIR ANNUAL REUNION BEING HELD IN DECATUR.
The Morning and Afternoon Session Given to Routine Business—A Camp Fire at Night—Gen. Lieb and W. W. Weedon Make Addresses—The Day's Program.
The Eighth Illinois regiment began its reunion yesterday morning in the hall of Dunham post, G. A. R. Vice-president George M. Durfee was in the chair. Capt. Hurt was secretary. The morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to routine business, reading of letters from absent comrades.
AT NIGHT.
A camp fire was held at which 200 or 300 people were present. It was entertained by singing by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Troxell, Mrs. George M. Durfee and the Misses Durfee, assisted by the comrades. A great many interesting reminiscences were told. The address of the evening was made by Gen. Herman Lieb, of Chicago, a member of the regiment. His theme was the battle of Shiloh. He spoke of the work of the Eighth at that battle, its position, movements, and the action of the men. He took up the much discussed question as to whether or not the battle was a surprise or not to Grant and Sherman. Gen. Lieb said it was a surprise to them. They, by the way, have claimed that it was not. Gen. Lieb kept a diary during the war, and the night of the first days fighting at that battle he made this entry in diary: "If Grant was a private in my company, he would never be a corporal." Gen. Lieb's talk was very interesting, and caused many smiles among the audience. He told some stories that were most amusing.
After the general, Elder W. W. Weedon, of Taylorville, spoke, taking as his theme the battle of Blakely, the last battle of the war.
Just at the close of the evening an exhibition of tumbling and acrobatic work was given by "Spider" Morris, the 8-year-old son of John Morris, a veteran who happened to be in the city. It was wonderful work for a boy of his age and was rewarded by a great many nickels.
TO-DAY
the association will meet in the hall at 8 a. m. and after electing officers and selecting a place to meet next year, will adjourn to accept an invitation of the Citizens street car company to view the city in a ride on their cars.
COMRADES PRESENT.

Company K—William Henshaw, Bloomington, A. S. Baylor, Decatur, John B. Dawson and J. V. McCulloch, Lexington, Ill., G. P. McClelland, Saybrook, Ill.
Sutler—I. N. Durst, Peoria.
GEN. LIEB,
who made the address last night will speak at public meeting at the court house to-night to which every one is invited. The tariff will come up for discussion. The general is one of the best informed men on this subject in the country. He has written a book on the tariff that has commanded a great deal of attention.
A Story of Lieb.
Gen. Herman Lieb, of Chicago, who came down to Decatur for the reunion of his old regiment, the Eighth Illinois, is an old resident of Decatur. It was in fact from Decatur that he marched away as captain of Co. B, of that regiment. Last night at the St. Nicholas Gen. Lieb told some interesting stories about his early life in Decatur, when the town had less than 4,000 people. There wasn't much of anything here then but mud. One incident was about hunting just beyond where the depot now stands. He and some others went out after supper. After waiting around in the mud and mud-trush for two or three hours without shooting anything, the general got what he thought was a fair shot. He killed a farmer's cow, though, instead of birds, and that settled the hunting business. At the rate of $25 a shot he thought it would only take one shot to satisfy him.

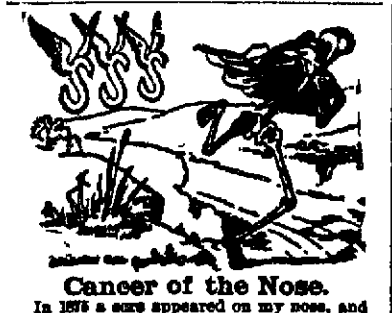

Deaths.
The funeral of John Malone, Sr., who came to Decatur four weeks ago, will be held at 8 o'clock this morning from St. Patrick's cathedral. He died at the hospital Wednesday night of old age.
The funeral of Mrs. Eline E. Jordan of Harrisonville, Mo., will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from Blue Mount chapel at 11 o'clock this morning. Services conducted by Rev. C. G. Wood.
Moran-Townsend.
There were a very large number of people at St. Patrick's cathedral yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to witness the marriage of William J. Moran and Miss Townsend. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father P. Mackin. The groom is a son of Alderman W. M. Moran, superintendent of the Decatur Coal company and is an enterprising and prosperous young man. The bride is a charming young lady who has been in the employ of Smith, Hubbard & Co. Last night a reception was given to the newly married couple at the home of the bride's parents, at 1150 East Sangamon street. A large number of their friends were present to wish them joy and happiness, and a most enjoyable time was had by all. An elaborate supper was served. Congratulations were the heartiest, and THE REVIEW joins with them in best wishes for the welfare of the bride and groom.
I have found out a gift for my fair. It is not a ring of gold, nor flowers for her hair, nor pearls for her white neck, but Salvation Oil for her sore throat. She is a singing bird. In all large communities persons are taking an increased interest in property insurance, and perhaps for the first time in our history, the best lives by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, when they are first attacked with a cough or cold.

THEY'RE IN OUR JAIL
Dunham and Holden to Be Mace County's Guests.
Calvin Holden and Albert Dunham were brought to Decatur on the train early yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. Sheriff Miller and Attorney C. F. Mansfield brought them. The people of Monticello knew they were to be brought, but made no demonstration. None got up at 2 o'clock to see them leave. The two men are here principally because the sheriff of Platt county does not want to have the responsibility of keeping them. The citizens lynched a wife murderer there once or a few years ago, and while there is no talk of anything of the kind now, and generally every one is satisfied for them to have a new trial, still the sheriff feels it will be better for them to be in our jail than in his. They will be here until next February, when their case comes up again.
At the jail yesterday the two men were very cheerful and contented. They had a few visitors, and spoke freely about themselves. Evidence that they are in a good humor and not uneasy. They said of course they were greatly relieved to get news of the reprieve, and though they had been confident they would not be hung, had yet made up their minds in the event of the worst, to die like men without any show of weakness. They think now that at the next trial they will be fully acquitted.
Officer Brockway tells an interesting story of Dunham, that is recalled by his incarceration in our jail. It was 9 or 10 years ago, when he was arrested on the charge of stealing a watch, that has been mentioned here before. He was a green, gawky fellow, and not any too bright. Officer Brockway was keeping the jail then. There were about 30 prisoners in the jail and they at once proceeded to have fun with Dunham. He took it good naturedly, though, and had no trouble. He was "initiated," and that was a severe experience. Then he was elected captain of the gang, and was called on for a speech. He made one. After that the prisoners organized a great conspiracy to break jail, and took the most terrible oaths to kill the officers and fight their way out. Dunham, as their leader, and some others, thought that was all in earnest, but they didn't make any effort to attempt to execute the desperate plans.

STRAY SCRAPS.
Gen. Lieb at the court house to-night.
McCabe & Young's minstrels to-night.
The Chicago excursionists are beginning to return.
Miss Minnie Buchanan will entertain a few friends at cards this evening.
The ladies of the Woman's Relief corps are making quilts for the soldiers home at Quincy.
W. T. Wells, C. L. Griswold and wife, and Felt Tait went to Chicago on the midnight train.
The Henry Burlesque company went to Mattoon yesterday forenoon to show there last night.
Mrs. J. F. Schock, of Orona, left Decatur yesterday for the west, where she will spend the winter.
A week from to-morrow night the Woman's exchange will serve an old-fashioned country supper at their rooms.
There will be a democratic rally at Sullivan Saturday. The principal address will be delivered by Alexander Mann, of Chicago.
Yesterday was pay day at the Niantic coal shaft. Superintendent Brueck and Cashier Curtis went down yesterday to give the boys their "stuff."
Mrs. N. Strohm gave possession yesterday of her Prairie avenue residence to Ben Howenstein, the purchaser. Mrs. Strohm has lived there 22 years.
George Mitchell is the new runner for Hotel Brunswick, succeeding Owen Hart who goes to the St. Nicholas as a porter. William Sherwood is night clerk at the Palace.
The managers of the Woman's club building stock company are making every effort to have the building ready for dedication by Thanksgiving eve. The first reception will be given then, also.
The house at 635 Prairie avenue, owned by R. S. Bohon, has been sold to John S. Childs, of Warrensburg, for $3,800. Mr. Childs will move to Decatur next March, and make his home in the house.
The number of men at work on the new Presbyterian church has been increased. The walls are being put up as fast as possible. Whenever a man can be stuck on to work, it is done. By Dec. 1, the walls must be in shape for the roof.
A big truck load of mail for St. Louis and other southern and western points was left on the depot platform yesterday afternoon when the fast train pulled out at 2:50 and had to wait for the slow train which was an hour and a half late. Some one in either the railway or the mail service is likely to get a letter several feet long.
The banner of the department of Illinois, G. A. R., in Dunham post's hall, has attracted much attention from the many veterans who have been attending the various reunions here. The banner is probably the finest one ever made. It is kept in a fine case of antique oak, with doors, that permit it to be exhibited easily.
The employees of the Citizens Car company state in connection with this new suit to be brought against them by Bradley Rogers, that when the porter saw the bill the ladies made no move to get off. The car was stopped for the porter, but as the ladies were apparently not moving as if to get off, the car went ahead again.
George Golt and Bob Muzzy will be home in a few weeks, as Forepaugh's circus, with which they have been traveling, closed on Nov. 1, at Richmond, V. They will be accompanied by Antoine Steppan, the clarinet player of Forepaugh's band. He will fill a vacancy in the opera house orchestra that has been felt severely.
Cards have been received in the city announcing the marriage of Miss Anna Routh to Herbert McGill. The ceremony will take place Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 22, at half past four, at the Congregational church of St. Anthony Park, Minn. Miss Routh is a daughter of the late Dr. J. W. Routh, formerly of Decatur, and Mr. McGill is the son of ex-Governor McGill of Minnesota.
Birthday Present.
Yesterday was the 41st birthday of Special Officer L. W. Grubbill. His wife celebrated it by getting up a little surprise party and making him a present that was unusual but appropriate. It was a handsome watch and revolver and was an expert on the subject of revolvers and he says this is one of the best. A fine dinner was a feature of the party.
Dangerously Ill.
Little Richard, the son of Capt. and Mrs. George E. Bacon, was so ill last night that it was feared he might not live until morning. The doctor was with him until 12 and medicine was sent for after that.

CRAWFORD'S ATTORNEYS.
John H. McCoy and A. G. Webber Are Appointed for His Defense.
The second trip since he was placed in jail was made by William Crawford yesterday to the court room. He was stronger than when there the first time, a few days ago, and instead of being carried was able to walk to the court house with the assistance afforded by the two bailiffs who walked with him. When he came into court Judge Vall appointed D. L. Bunn and C. C. LeForge as the attorneys for defense. They both followed the example of Attorney Ewing and begged to be excused, on the grounds of business engagements. Their excuses were granted and then John H. McCoy was appointed. He retired to consult with Crawford. City Attorney Edward McDonald was asked to assist but was excused, and A. G. Webber was then appointed to assist in the defense. Crawford entered a plea of not guilty, by his attorneys, and then went back to jail. Mr. McCoy said last night that he was not at all discouraged, as there had been no time yet. He would ask for a continuance this morning when Crawford would be brought into court and expected that there would be no objection made to that.
At the request of Crawford's attorneys, County Physician Hall went to the jail last evening to make a special examination of him. It was expected that he would certify to the court that Crawford's health is in such a condition that he should not be tried this term, but after the examination the doctor decided that he decided that not conscientiously report that way, so none was made. His wound is now healed except for a slight hole, big enough to hold a tooth pick point.

BALL OF THE B. R. T.
A Large Crowd Enjoyed Last Night—A Most Successful Affair.
The annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was held last night at the Guards' armory, and a large number were there to enjoy it, 115 tickets being presented. The hall was decorated with trainmen's lanterns of red, green and white, and on the wall opposite the door was a locomotive headlight covered with a red transparency reading "B. R. T. T. C. Broderick lodge, No. 390." T. C. Broderick for whom the lodge is named was on the program as chief floor manager, but he was unable to get here, being an engineer on the Chicago division. His absence was regretted by all. The grand march was at 9 o'clock and was led by Assistant Floor Manager Frank McKee with his bride, formerly Miss Ella F. Shaughnessy, to whom he had been married earlier in the evening.
The committees were as follows. Arrangements—O. Dunnigan, chairman; C. N. McCullough, secretary, and Dennis Sullivan and J. N. Gynn.
Floor Managers—T. C. Broderick, chief; Frank McKee, assistant, and W. H. Jones, George P. Jones, M. J. Mason, J. W. McKay and J. N. Welty.
Reception—C. H. Welty, F. M. Pendley, J. H. Alexander, Harvey Leighton, C. A. Kelso, T. H. Kilroy and Gus Erickson.
Introduction—W. W. Willis, H. L. Hamilton, F. J. Kennary, W. S. Williams, W. T. Hartley, E. W. Austman and William Donovan.

Cancer of the Nose.
In 1875 a case appeared on my nose, and grew rapidly. As my father had cancer, my business died off, I became alarmed, and consulted my physician. His treatment did no good, and the sore grew larger and worse in every way, until I had concluded that I was dying from its effects. I was persuaded to take S. S. S., and a few bottles cured me. This was after all the doctors and other medicines had failed. I have had no return of the cancer.
